Colored slip waists, 50c, at Abbott's.

By express, more of those box rushings, at Vaughan's.

Gloves and mittens at McWhorter's, 10c to $4.00 per pair.

A splendid concert was given at the Congregational church last evening, which was well attended. Local talent was reinforced by E. H. Miller, a soloist, and Mr. Briggs, a well known organist.

The others who contributed to the success of the evening's programme were S. Hollister Jackson, organist, the Congregational church quartette, J. Ward Carver, reader, and the Schuman quartette. The programme consisted of ten numbers but the audience willed that it should double that. So enthusiastic audiences as those of last evening are rarely assembled in Barre.

A Well Known Vocalist.

Arrangements have just been completed for the appearance at the Barre opera house Feb. 21st of the celebrated contralto singer, Mrs. Marie Parcell.

Bixy of New York, under the auspices of the Civic Federation. Mrs. Bixy has gained a famous reputation, both in this country and Europe. Within the last few years she has sung before and been praised by the leading critics in Paris and London, and in many of the large cities of France, Germany and Italy. When she returned to this country, about three years ago, her services for concerts were in great demand. Her early career started out brilliantly, but was interrupted by an unfortunate accident, which deprived her of the use of her limbs for nearly two years.

Through the advice of her physicians, she went to Nice, where she was restored to health. During her convalescence, while on the Riviera, she was prevailed upon to give concerts, and from thence her fame became broadcast.

During the past few seasons Mrs. Bixy has been one of the most popular artists who have appeared in the Waldorf-Astoria musicals. Her concert at the opera house, Wednesday, Feb. 21st, will be one of the best entertainments of this season.

SUE J. H. HYDE.

Equitable Society Wants $72,000, His Profits.

New York, Feb. 1.—President Paul Morton of the Equitable Life Assurance society has announced that suit had been started against James H. Hyde for the recovery of approximately $72,000 representing Mr. Hyde's profits in syndicates which sold securities to the society. Mr. Morton also announced that suits were in preparation against various men who had profited by the leases of space in buildings owned by the Equitable to some of the so-called subsidiary companies, and that these and other claims of the society growing out of the acts of the old Equitable administration were being pushed as rapidly as possible.

At a meeting of the Equitable directors yesterday several of the counsel employed in the factional troubles in the society last year and before the reorganization presented their bills. Objections were made that resulted in the appointment of a special committee to consider whether the legal charges were excessive and whether in certain instances the society ought in any event to be liable for their payment.

IDENTIFIED BY WOMAN.

Highgate Farmer Is Held for Trial in County Court.

St. Albans, Feb. 1.—Charles Barrett, the young Highgate farmer who was arrested Tuesday, charged with criminal assault on Mary Lombard of Swanton on Saturday last, was yesterday arraigned before Justice Charles H. Reynolds of Swanton, for a preliminary hearing under the direction of State's Attorney Warren R. Austin of this city.

The prisoner was represented by Fred L. Webster of Swanton. The victim of the crime positively identified Barrett as the man who did the deed, and her testimony and that of several others was so strong that Justice Reynolds has placed Barrett under $1,000 bail for appearance before the Franklin county court.
